Gen. Truscott Returned To Duty as McCloy Aide

By the Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 25.— Lt. Gen. Lucian K. Truscott, jr., former military governor of Bavaria, yesterday was ordered back to active duty.

Gen. Truscott retired from the Army in 1946 after a heart attack suffered while serving as the military governor of Bavaria.

The 56-year-old Oklahoman will act as co-ordinator and adviser for military security, defense organization and public safety to John J. McCloy, high commissioner for Germany.

During World War II he commanded the 5th Army in Italy and the 3d Army on occupation duty in Germany.

Truscott Joins McCloy Staff.

FRANKFORT, Germany, May 24 (AP)—John J. McCloy, United States High Commissioner for Germany, announced today that Lieut.
Gen. Lucian K. Truscott Jr., retired, had joined his staff as coordinator and adviser for military security, defense organization and public safety.
